

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

Washoe County Official Press.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA.
FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1878.

Rather Unfair.

We understand that Judge Wright is laboring faithfully to convince people that our remarks concerning him are dictated by some parties whom he calls his enemies. We have several times been compelled to call attention to certain egregious blunders made by Judge Wright, which were expensive to litigants and to the county. We have called attention to these matters in the interests of our county, not caring after their occurrence what effect these remarks might have upon Judge Wright's candidacy for reelection. Judge Wright well knows that he can have opportunity to explain anything, but he has always said that he did not want an explanation published. He preferred to think himself a martyr because it gave him opportunity to belittle those whom he disliked by asserting that they prompted the criticisms in question. It is then in order for us to say that anyone asserting that we do any man's bidding in the slightest degree, tells a lie, and we inform each of the county officers that we believe them to be servants of the people and not their masters, and when their names appear in the columns of the Gazette, the honor will be conferred by the editor of this paper, and at his own suggestion. No man has reason to believe otherwise, and to assert it is merely to resort to a political dodge, and take an unfair advantage of other men.

Now, in regard to the case of Harrington and the State Prison breakers, we have this to state: After a conversation with Judge Wright, we find we were wrong in some particulars, as will be seen from the following: The Judge set Tuesday to try the State prisoners, in case the Harrington trial was postponed for any cause, and if H's case should be continued, then he would send a telegram to Carson informing the proper officers that he would the next morning open Court. Our error, it will be seen, was therefore a slight one. But, as we stated, we design him nor any one else any injustice, and will take every opportunity to right a wrong committed on our part. We gathered from our further conversation with the Judge that he had reason to believe, from conversations with some of the attorneys in the Harrington case, that it could not well be tried last Monday, and therefore would in all probability be continued, as subsequently proved true. Otherwise, of course, the assumption on his part would have been that the case would be tried on that and one or more days following. Having therefore reason to believe that this case would be postponed, he made the contingent appointment in Ormsby county, as we have stated. We are glad that he made this explanation to us, and take pleasure in correcting our unintentional error.

Carle & Croly, contractors for closing the break in the levee below Sacramento, have now built 250 feet successfully, and it is believed, if no wash-out takes place as the gap grows narrower, that all will be closed by Saturday night, in which case all water south of R street levee will run off in one day.

Some two weeks ago Peter Boyer fell off a barge into the Sacramento river, at the Lovedale break in the levee below Sacramento, and was drowned. Wednesday his body was found near the place where he fell in.

Joel H. Cotton, who kept a saloon about nineteen miles from Sacramento up the river, committed suicide with a revolver, in presence of his wife, on Monday last.

Ex-Congressman Vance, of Ohio, has run away with another man's wife. He is also accused of various crooked deeds whilst a member of the House.

The Russian military authorities and transport officials, Wednesday, held a council upon measures for the ultimate evacuation of Turkey.

The Kearney party was defeated in the city elections held in Santa Rosa yesterday. The citizens ticket carried by 400 majority.

Major-General Lewis has appointed Wm. M. Gibson of Stockton, as aide-de-camp of his staff.

Kearney's Mistake.

Dennis Kearney has in the flush of success made a serious mistake in permitting the absurd cry of "Hemp" to become a watchword in his party ranks. Let a man commence the use of stimulants, and for each excess another and a wilder one will become necessary to satisfy his appetite. In this way precisely the use of lawless words will become uninteresting without they are followed by lawless deeds. Kearney has talked hanging, and found favor with violent men who misapprehend the possibilities of the situation. These men are now clamoring for the reward of their allegiance—they want to hang somebody. The talk about hemp has ceased to hold them, and Kearney must now furnish some stronger stimulant or lose voters. He is shrewd enough to see that hanging by mob law must not go farther than talk, and is in a quandary to know what he can offer in satisfaction of the taste which he has created. He attempted to make Bones resign. Bones said he would consider it for two years. Kearney then turned the matter over to a committee upon which he could rely, and the public await their report. It will probably be found that no necessity exists for the hanging of Bones, and upon that announcement we expect that Kearney will have trouble. He must either hang Bones or provide an entertainment equally attractive, and he acknowledges the situation. Wellock has carried a noose probably for the last time. In Oakland he paraded the streets with his cry of "Hemp," and one old man who fought under the flag pursued him with the avowed object of killing him. In Santa Rosa recently the Workingmen's ticket was defeated and Wellock was run out of town. The cry of "Hemp" is fast losing its power, and Kearney must provide a substitute. He made a serious blunder when he ever permitted the use of such knotty arguments.

Telegraphic Summary.

Doorkeeper Polka's case was before the House Wednesday, but no disposition was made of it.

The deadlock in British Columbia seems insurmountable, and a dissolution is regarded as inevitable.

The Utah Northern Railroad was sold at auction April 3d. There was but one bid, and it was offered by S. H. H. Clark, Superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad, for $100,000.

It is officially reported from Cuba that 2,600 insurgents surrendered in the jurisdiction of Manizillo during March. Of these 1,240 were men. The arms of all kinds given up amounted to 2,030 pieces.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The steamship Canada, of the French line, which left for Havre yesterday, carried out eight hundred tons of exhibits for the Paris Exposition. These have been sent on from all parts of the country, some of them coming from Oregon.

Further investigations by the House Postal Committee discover more fraudulent and gigantic frauds. It seems that a great combination of contractors exists for the purpose of bidding for postal routes and cheating the Government in a systematic way.

Later returns from the Rhode Island election, held Wednesday, place the result as follows: Van Zandt (Rep.) 11,118, Lawrence (Dem.) 7,195, Foster (Greenback) 583, and scattering 31. Van Zandt's majority 3,309. His majority last year was 441. The Legislature is very largely Republican.

The three measures introduced by the French Government—the Colportage bill, the Press Amnesty bill and the State of Siege bill—have all become laws. The first prevents the recurrence of the most arbitrary proceedings of the De Broglie Cabinet, the second cancels its 3,000 press prosecutions, though extended by the Senate to about a dozen earlier or later offenders, including Paul de Cassagnac, and the third is directed against the abuse of power which, though not resorted to by Duke De Broglie, was notoriously advocated by some of his colleagues and supporters.

Wednesday a special freight train broke in two at a point three miles east of Emigrant Gap, and then ran together again. One car was thrown from the track, fourteen others being more or less broken. No one was injured. There were 25 car loads of stock in the train, and while the animals were badly shaken up none were seriously hurt.

State News.

Every saddle horse in Virginia City has been engaged for the fox hunt next Sunday.

The Virginia City markets still continue to be supplied with trout from Pyramid Lake.

Times are now very lively with the tailings again Six-mile Canyon. They have plenty of water and plenty of tailings.

Last night's Cornucopia stage brought over four bars of Humber bullion, weighing 392 pounds, and valued at $5,192 25.

A walking match against time will be commenced in Cooper's Hall, Virginia, next Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. A miner has bet $250 that he can walk 75 miles in 20 hours.

Sam Davis, of the Virginia Chronicle, had a fight yesterday morning with Mayor E. B. Stonehill of Virginia City. Sam knocked Stonehill down, when they were separated by outside parties.

The body of James Dunning was found in the mountains, six miles from Carson, a few days ago. He had been murdered or had committed suicide, was about 45 years of age, and had formerly lived in Carson.

When a Tuscarora man strikes a good body of ore, or starts a mill crushing its rock, down goes the stock. The Navajo is running the Independence mill steadily, and yesterday 3,300 shares of its stock sold at $1 1/2 per share.

Carson is to have a season of the military drama. On the nights of April 9 and 10 the exciting drama "The Color Guard" will be performed at Theater Hall, for the benefit of the Carson Guard. Over fifty persons will participate, and already active rehearsals are in progress.

At the first of every month many business men of Virginia visit the faro games of that city and collect bills from poor debtors. The bad debtor when paid off wants to "buck against the tiger" and visits that wild beast's lair. When he has a pile of bone chips before him, in steps the creditor and demands that the "chips" be cashed, which done he walks away with what of right belongs to him.

Elko county Times-Review, 3d: Quite a number of white men and some few Chinamen are busily engaged in placer mining in the various gulches in this district. A party of white men headed by the Murray brothers are ground sluicing just above the Hornet, and are getting some very good prospects. Over about old Chinatown, the Windsor mill and Eureka gulch the most of the work is being done.

Pioche Record, 30th: At Mr. Glisan's ranch, in Rose Valley, last Sunday, a mare mule gave birth to a colt covered with a heavy coat of long brown hair resembling that of a grizzly bear, interspersed here and there with spots of a lighter color, a black streak running from the mane to the tail. The animal is perfect in form, with the exception of the left fore foot, which resembles that of a bear.

Carson Appeal, 4th: The prisoners who were tried in the District Court for an attempt to break from the State Prison were brought up for sentence yesterday. John Belcher and W. C. Burton, who pleaded guilty, were sentenced to one year's imprisonment in addition to the time for which they were formerly sentenced. Ned Allen, C. Spencer, John Curra, John W. Nelson and Joe Estrada, who stood trial and were found guilty as charged, were sentenced to two years in addition to their allotted time.

The war cloud may yet pass from the European horizon. The circular of Lord Salisbury seems to be approved by the Powers, and Russia does not receive that support which she had expected. Austria has virtually espoused the cause of England, and Russia must be more moderate in her demands. The probabilities for peace are favorable. A strong indication being the firmness of Anglo-Russian securities on the London money market and exchanges.

A San Buenaventura dispatch of Wednesday says: In the matter of the receiver of the Standard Oil Company, reported yesterday as having been driven off, the Court has ordered him to take no further steps in the matter pending a motion for his removal.

The Turks continue to massacre the insurrectionary inhabitants of Thessaly. American, English, French and Austrian men-of-war have been ordered to Volo to render such aid as possible to the suffering Greeks.

The Permanent Exhibition in Philadelphia promises to pull through its troubles. Arrangements have been made with all its creditors, and the show is announced to open in May, with new life.

Eureka County.

John W. Dennis of the Times-Review casts up the politics of Eureka as follows:

A majority of the Republicans of this county, I am confident, favor the nomination of Daggett for Governor. Hobart has many friends and would probably poll a heavier vote at the election than his principal Republican opponent, but as a goodly proportion of his supporters are members of the other party, their aid can not be rendered available for convention purposes. The names of other Republican gubernatorial candidates are casually mentioned, but with no degree of prominence, and unless some radical change takes place before the primaries, it is pretty certain that the Enterprise man will bag the delegation. Jerry Moore is well and favorably known in this vicinity, and has a number of active supporters, who will press his claims for the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. Harry Mighels, as a zealous and consistent Republican and able advocate of the cause, has many admirers who would like to give him a political boost, and his career as Speaker of the last Assembly is also consistently urged in his behalf, but if Mr. Daggett is placed at the head of the ticket Uncle Jerry's locality will doubtless prove a strong point in his favor, independent of the rumor which I have heard whispered, I don't know how truthfully, that considerable unanimity exists between the two in the choice of the delegates. If he is a candidate for re-election, as it is generally supposed he is, Mr. Wren will probably carry the Eureka delegation for Congress. Jones is the almost unanimous choice of the Republicans here for United States Senator. The base range branch of the Democratic family appears to be divided between Bradley and Hagerman for Governor, with the preponderance, from present appearances, slightly in favor of the latter. An unfortunate vacancy in the Board of County Commissioners which the Governor was called upon to fill has evoked a legion of active opponents among the disappointed candidates and their friends. Third term and old age are also urged against him, but as merely side issues, the vacant County Commissionership is the main rock upon which he splits. Mr. Hagerman, when here during the last Presidential campaign as a candidate upon the Democratic Electoral ticket, created a favorable impression, which, with the disaffection in the Bradley ranks, will probably insure him the delegation from this county. Jewett Adams will probably get some support from here, for his present position of Lieutenant Governor.

Kearney was hung in effigy yesterday in San Francisco.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rolfe for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world.

ELECTION.—At the election of officers of the Truckee & Steamboat Canal Company, held yesterday, Mr. Peleg Brown was elected President and Treasurer; Mr. B. B. Norton, Vice-President; J. S. Gibson, Secretary, and James Burke, Superintendent. The irrigating ditch, which the company propose to construct, will extend from a point near Verdi to Steamboat Springs, and is 10,500 rods long, is estimated to cost $40,000, and will require one year to complete.

Jottings.

D. A. Bender of Carson was in town to-day.

The Cupola furnace will be heard from in a few days.

Now is the time to set up your croquet wickets and stakes.

Mr. James Kinkead returned from San Francisco this morning.

Mr. Charles Courtois confirms our previously published version of Bodie. Remember the Workingmen's meeting to-morrow night at the Opera House.

This weather is not adapted to overcoats and shawls. Spring goods are in order.

Rev. N. J. Lake, of Truckee, will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The Truckee continues to rise and its turbid waters are impregnated with large quantities of sawdust, so deleterious to the much sought trout.

Colds, sore throats and mumps are just now very popular in town. The transition of Spring and Summer weather may be assigned as the cause of said ailments.

The following ladies have applied for teachers' certificates: Miss Frances Grippin, Miss Calie Smart, Miss Maggie Vance, Miss Cora Cantrill and Miss Laura Marsh.

There is a base ball club in nearly every town in the State, even in Virginia City where there is not over ten sq. ft. of level ground. Why not organize a club in Reno?

No place for poor men to go to, or those seeking employment. Board and lodging high, work scarce, many men idle and in want, the camp overrun, and many going there. Restless seekers of work, the picture is not a pleasing one.

District Court.

There was no session of the District Court to-day, save a presentation of a partial report by the Grand Jury, as follows:

A true bill of indictment against Ed. Bergin, Charles Woods, Ed. Gillis and L. Woodward, for burglary; Ah Ham and Ah Fong for jail breaking and escape (Ah Ham is still at large); and Ah Choy for murder.

The following claimed the attention of the Court after our report published yesterday:

N. A. Merritt vs. A. K. Lamb—Demurrer set for April 6th.

Jas. Mayberry vs. Douglass & Hart—Motion to tax costs, set for April 5th.

Sierra Nevada Lumber Association vs. Courtois & Boyd—Demurrer overruled, 5 days to answer.

F. C. A. vs. Jos. Smith et al.—Demurrer overruled, one day to answer.

Barrett Bros. vs. G. B. Hill—Demurrer to plea in abatement overruled.

J. S. Shoemaker vs. E. B. Hancock—Demurrer overruled and five days given to answer. Defendant excepted to ruling of Court.

Crete et al. vs. Jas. Mayberry—Defendant granted five days time to demur, and in case he desires to answer and not demur, then ten days. Court in session to-morrow.

LAST EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.

A good house greeted the concert and drama given last evening at the Academy of music. Of the singing we may say that special mention may be made of Miss Tallman, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Greeley, and Miss Lida Hutchinson, Misses Mosier and McKay are also not to be forgotten. The play of the "Coming Woman" was repeated and much improved upon over its presentation on the preceding evening. The ladies and gentlemen, taking part in this play did well for amateurs, and we would mention the names of those who merit special mention if they were not of our town people. It seems that the spirit and interpretation of our criticism on this piece yesterday were misunderstood. We said we thought the play a poor one, so we do, but this is no fault of the actors. We compliment them on succeeding so well with such poor material for public presentation. The playwright does not bring out the prominent features of his production, nor voice his thoughts in terms of sufficient expression, harmony and terseness. But it is now out of taste to venture further criticism. Last evening's entertainment was well received by the audience, and those who bore a part may justly be complimented by their friends for the manner in which they executed their respective parts. The proceeds from the two evenings amount to $50 or $60.

OUR FEARS.—This warm weather bringeth forth the grass and herb after its kind; yea, the fruit blossoms do appear. But after a few days, or many, may not the late frost destroy the incipient fruit, and our condition be as in former years? Will the weather clerk not deal kindly with us, for fruit and flower are pleasing to the eye, and succulent fruit also to the taste.

Gossip is busy concerning marriages which are soon to take place in Gold Hill. One young lady confessed to a News reporter yesterday that a certain young man was liable to be her mother's son-in-law before long.—Gold Hill News.

Well, send us an invitation. We have been of the opinion that you would succeed and shall hold ourselves in readiness to sympathize with the unfortunate young lady.

Kissing the Dead Pope's Feet.

We were taken through the ante-chamber and great halls, all of which were filled with a changing crowd similar to that on the staircase; then we passed on an outer gallery into the Throne Hall, and from thence into a small room, where we saw Pius IX. lying, as if asleep, on a low bed, which stood in the center. Five priests sat on a bench at the end of the room, back of the head of the bed, reciting prayers; two of the guards, nobles, which were drawn swords covered with crapes, stood on guard; there were four huge, lighted candles in high stands on the floor—two at the head, two at the feet of the dead Pope. The bed was caparisoned with red silk damask, and had a cover of the same rich stuff; on this cover lay the body of the Pope, dressed in his usual robe of white woolen, the mozzetta rose, or cape, bordered with ermine, the camisero, or hood, on his head also bordered and lined with white ermine, and red cloth shoes on his feet. The hands were folded one over the other, on the chest, and under them was the crucifix. His Holiness held, kissed and gave the solemn benediction with just before the dread agony of death came on. It was startling to see how life-like he looked. During the last year or two there have been many distressing marks of old age in the Pope's face, but as I saw the holy father dead last Saturday he looked as he did two years ago, when I first received his benediction. I was near enough to touch the body and to see the face plainly. There was a gentle smile on it; it seemed as if he was at the moment of awakening—that his splendid eye would open upon us. I could only think of the just made perfect who rest in the peace of the Lord. Everyone who has seen the late Pope has certainly noticed the beauty of his hand, white, well formed, dignified, and graceful in motion. These most beautiful hands were most perfectly preserved; the sparkling oriental amethyst ring was on the finger, and I almost looked to see the benediction hand raised to bless us. We were only three; we knelt at the side of the bed awhile; then approached the feet, knelt and kissed them; knelt again to the other side, and then passed out of the still room of death. A young Protestant friend who was with me pressed a bunch of bay laurel leaves, which she had just gathered on the Pincio, to the Pope's feet, afterward she said: "When I kissed the feet it seemed as if I were pressing my lips to Clie's leaves."—Anne Brewster's Rome Letter in Boston Advertiser.

THE WOMEN AND THE VIRGINIA DEBT.—A Warrington, Va., letter says: The ladies of this town have organized a society for the purpose of paying the State debt. They have held two meetings and elected officers, appointed committees, etc. The idea is to give the thing a start, get every woman in the State to join the society, have an initiation fee of 25 cents, and a certain monthly contribution; in this way to raise some money for the grand patriotic purpose, but mainly by their example to inspire the slothful and shame the dishonest men of the State out of the idea of repudiation.
